A6469 2008b OCLC Number: (OCOLOC)401702343 Subject: Coal-fired power plants -- United States. Excerpt: . . . 11 opportunity to provide the Department with additional input before we release the final FOA by mid summer with an announcement of selections targeted for December of this year. As I explained at the start, coal is a strategic energy resource for America. Our commitment to coal cannot waiver. But to be success-ful in confronting the energy and environmental challenges before us, we cannot continue the business as usual approach. We must continually ask if we are efficiently using our taxpayer investments to achieve a cleaner, more sustainable, more affordable and more secure energy future. Where we are not, we must make changes. That is the difficult responsibility of leadership. And that is exactly what we are doing with the FutureGen program. PREPARED STATEMENT Mr. Chairman, I know that you and the other Senators have questions for me. So at this time I would like to enter my written statement for the record. Thank you. The statement follows: P S H. S W. B REPAR ED TATEMENT OF ON AMUEL ODMAN Chairman Dorgan, Senator Domenici, members of the subcommittee, I appreciate the opportunity to discuss with you the status of the Department of Energys FutureGen program. Today I will summarize how we have restructured the pro-gram, describe the reasons for the restructuring, and then discuss in greater detail how we intend to carry out the program. COMMITMENT TO CLEAN COAL The United States Government is on an ambitious course to develop and deploy clean energy solutions that are technologically feasible, commercially scalable, and economically sustainable to...
